[5th April 1958

(4) To review the temporary posts in existence, to see whether their continuance is justified and whether and on what criteria such of them as reflect permanent needs can be made permanent.

(5) To examine the working of any " yard sticks " in force in any department for considering proposals for increase of staff to suggest any modifications that may be necessary, and to examine whether any such " yard stick " can be laid down for any other department.

2. The Special Officer will also be requested to examine and report whether a Financial Commissioner should be appointed on a permanent basis to ensure economy in administration, and if so, in what manner, after the initial examination of such department has been completed, he should function vis-a-vis the Head of the Department on the one hand and the Government on the other.

3. The Special Officer will also consider and report on the need to set up a permanent Organization and Methods Division in the Secretariat and the lines on which it should function.

4. The Special Officer will also examine and report on the following two requests of the Indian Officers' Association :—

(i) Sanction of annual increments to all gazetted officers of the State Government as in the case of non-gazetted Government servants, to enable them to get a little benefit by way of higher pay for leave salary and pension; and

(ii) Merger of 50 per cent dearness allowance with pay with immediate effect.

5. Orders regarding the appointment of the Special Officer will be issued from the Public (Special) Department. He will function in the Secretariat and will work under the direction of a Committee of the Cabinet which will issue instructions as to the order in which the departments should be taken up, the target to be aimed at, etc., and pass orders on the recommendation of the Special Officer relating to each department as and when he submits his report in regard to each department.
